City Council Staff Report

Author: Amy Rodriguez
Subject: Official Primary Election Canvass
Date: August 24, 2021
Type of Item: Action Item

Summary Recommendations: Board of Canvass to approve the official canvass results of the 2021 Primary Election.

Description:

A. Topic: Approval of Official Election Results.

- B. Background: As per Utah State Code Section 20A-4-301, the governing body shall serve as the Board of Canvass and approve the Official Canvass Results which shall announce the elected candidates. The Canvass must be completed no earlier than 7 days after the election and no later than 14 days from the election.

The City held a vote by mail election. The ballots were mailed out on July 20, 2021. The ballots were counted by the county as they were returned to their offices. On the night of the Primary Election, the Ballots were brought to the Weber County elections office by myself and City Treasurer Heidi Gerritsen. The results were tallied by the Weber County Election's office and reported back to the City Recorder. The unofficial results were released around 8:24 P.M. on the night of the election. The updated unofficial count was released around 1:20 p.m on August 12, 2021. I will receive the final official results on August 24, 2021.

C. Analysis:

On August 24, 2021, the County staff will conduct official canvass of the ballots that are permissible to count.

Attached are the interim official results of the election. Any valid ballots received before noon on August 24, 2021 still be counted. I will report those results at the Council meeting Tuesday night, as I do not have the official canvass reports at the time of this packet.

D. Department Review: City Recorder

Recommendations:

The Board of Canvass could pass a motion to approve the Official Primary Election Canvass Results.
