

WELLINGTON CITY

JOB DESCRIPTION

Job Title: Reserve Police Officer

Department: Police

Supervisor: Police Officer

GENERAL SUMMARY:

The individual holding the job described as "Reserve Police Officer" shall perform a variety of duties as directed by a Wellington City Police Officer and as indicated in this Job Description relating to the performance of a police officer on the Wellington City Police Force.

This individual shall report to and be supervised by a Wellington City Police Officer while on shift. Ultimately, this individual shall report to the Mayor.

ESSENTIAL KNOWLEDGE, SKILLS AND ABILITIES REQUIRED:

A Reserve Police Officer must have certification as a Category I Peace Officer through the Utah State Peace Ofc. Standards and Training Academy and must be appropriately certified with any/all weapon/firearm that they either carry or May, of necessity, utilize in the performance of their function as a Wellington City Police Officer. They shall possess a thorough knowledge of the City including the streets and byways therein, location of administrative office locations including, but not limited to the City Hall, Fire Department, Police Department, waterworks, electrical stations and support structure, water drainage and emergency flood runoff/drainage. They shall possess a knowledge of individuals involved in and responsible for providing emergency services to the citizens of Wellington City including, but not limited to, emergency medical services and fire fighting.

A Reserve Police Officer must have considerable knowledge and experience in modern law enforcement principles, procedures, techniques and equipment, as well as knowledge of Federal, State, County, and City rules, regulations, laws and ordinances. Further, a Police Officer shall have considerable knowledge and ability to function within Wellington City, and State of Utah rules and regulations governing law enforcement officers.