AGENDA TOPICS

Mayor

Jed Maxwell:

Review Ordinance 162-2021 tabled

Toys for Tots donation tabled

Review Budget Mayor Maxwell stated he would like Council Members to review the department budgets and reach out to Ashlee Larsen with any questions.

Update on Veterans Memorial Kathy Maxwell stated her, Teron Crane, Rodney Rasmussen, and Kelly Laier formed a small committee to receive bids and donations for granite and etching of picture memorability of the wars at the Veterans Memorial site. Kathy Maxwell reached out to Lora Fielding with the Salina Sun to see if she can place an ad in the newspaper to let Salina

City Residents aware of the project. Maxwell stated their goal is to sell bricks and receive donations. Kathy Maxwell stated the first bid amount is $6,000 and they are still waiting for a couple more bids. The Veterans Memorial has $1900 in their account but doesn't want to deplete the funds entirely due to purchasing flags throughout the year for the Memorial site. Kathy Maxwell stated anyone can purchase a brick it doesn't just need to be a Salina City Resident this is for whomever has served in a war. Jon Maxwell suggested placing this information on Salina City social media. Cade Hunter asked the cost of the brick and the profit. Kathy Maxwell stated the cost of the brick is $100 and Rick from Richfield Monument charges $25.00 per brick and does an excellent job. Once they receive all the bids they'll bring it back to the next scheduled City Council.

Blackhawk Arena

Director Jake Van: excused

Police Chief

Al Taylor:

Approval of LED stop sign paddles: Chief Taylor stated his concerns of purchasing two New LED stop signs. Cars are speeding by the crossing guards. Taylor worried there could be an accident and hopes the LED stop signs will catch the eye of the vehicles. Cade Hunter motioned to approve two new LED stop sign paddles for the crossing guards in the amount of $900.00. Jon Maxwell seconded. Motion carried 3 to 0.
