1.0 BACKGROUND

1.1 Summary

Currently the R-1-21 and R-1-43 (estate residential) zones allow the keeping of animals and fowl for family food production as a permitted use. Family food production involves the keeping of a limited number of "farm" animals, which may have an impact on neighboring properties. Changes are being proposed to reduce the number of animals which may be kept, and to require conditional use approval in the R-1-43 and R-1-21 zones for this use. The conditional use process will allow planning commission oversight and the imposition of conditions of approval to mitigate any negative impacts that may result from the keeping of these types of animals.

UPDATE This item was continued from last month's agenda. In analyzing the zoning for Copperton, there are no residential properties in the Copperton Township that will be affected by the proposed change (family food production is not listed in the R-1-6, R-2-6.5, R-1-8, or R-2-8 zones).

2.0 ANALYSIS

2.1 Existing Ordinance

"Family Food Production" is currently defined as: the keeping of not more than two cows, two sheep, two goats, twenty rabbits, fifty chickens, fifty pheasants, ten ducks, ten turkeys, ten geese and twenty pigeons, provided that an additional number of animals equal to two times the number listed above, and an additional number of fowl equal to five times the number listed above may be kept for each one-half acre of the lot over and above the minimum number of square feet required for a single-family residential lot in the zone, and provided that not more than three of the above-listed kinds of animals and fowl are permitted at any one time on any lot smaller than one-half acre.

It is listed as a permitted use in the R-1-21 an R-1-43 zones, with the only restriction being found in section 19.76.240: No animals or fowl shall be kept or maintained closer than forty feet from any dwelling on an adjacent parcel of land

2.2 Proposed Ordinance

The proposed ordinance removes the provision that allows for an increased number of animals for lots that exceed the minimum acreage requirement in the zone, and also limits the number of different types of animals that may be kept on one lot to three. It also removes "the keeping of animals and fowl for family food production" from the permitted use list in the R-1-21 and R-1-43 zones, and inserts it into the conditional use list in the same zones.

3.0 STAFF RECOMMENDATION

3.1 Staff recommends APPROVAL of the proposed Ordinance Amendment .

3.2 Reasons for Recommendation

- 1) The proposed changes will allow appropriate conditions of approval to be imposed on residential properties on which family food production animals are allowed.
- 2) The proposed changes will also establish reasonable limits on the numbers of animals on residentially zoned (R-1-21 and R-1-43) lots.
