This meeting was held electronically.

The hearing started at 6:04 p.m.

Roll Call Mayor Ann K. Leppanen, Luanne Hook, Linda Sosa; Brant Murray and Jim Sayers were not present

Leppanen opened the hearing and noted that the Council adopted the Amended 2021-2022 Budget at the regular May 10th meeting. She explained the amounts we projected back in June 2021 were very close to the final amounts we had in revenue and expense. Capital projects was lower and Roads was higher because we loaned $32,788 from the General Fund to Roads. The funds for the old school came in and went out the same day. And the budget balances. There were no questions.

Leppanen noted that the Council had also adopted the Tentative 2022-2023 budget at the May 10th meeting. Our projections are similar to last year but changes include receiving ARPA and CDBG (grants) funds. The Roads account will transfer 1/3 of the General Fund 2021 loan back to the General Fund in September.

Erin Richards asked if revenue from Community Center rentals was based on reservations or was projected. Leppanen said they were projected and we had several low income years because of Covid. There were no other questions. Leppanen thanked the audience.

Hook motioned to adjourn the meeting at 6:18 p.m., Sosa seconded and Leppanen, Hook, and Sosa, voted in favor.

Linda Sosa, Recording Officer
