

CENTRAL WASATCH COMMISSION

RESOLUTION No. 2022-36

A RESOLUTION EXPRESSING GRATITUDE TO KAYE MICKELSON FOR HER EXEMPLARY SERVICE TO THE CENTRAL WASATCH COMMISSION

WHEREAS, the Central Wasatch Commission (the “CWC”) is an interlocal entity and political subdivision of the state of Utah which was formed in June 2017 for the purpose of better assuring the wise stewardship of the Wasatch mountain range in Salt Lake, Summit and Wasatch counties—including its watershed, recreational areas and natural beauty—so that future generations can continue to benefit from that wonderful and integral part of Utah’s natural environment; and

WHEREAS, as a new governmental entity, the CWC was without staff, office space, office equipment, policies and procedures, and various other attributes of a mature, fully-functioning governmental entity; and

WHEREAS, consequently, the future successful functioning of the CWC was dependent, in large part, on the groundwork to be performed by the CWC’s governing body (the “Board”) and its administrative staff; and

WHEREAS, in September 2019 Kaye Mickelson was selected to serve as the CWC’s first Office Administrator, charged with assisting Executive Director Ralph Becker, Deputy Director Blake Perez and Communications Director Lindsey Nielsen in furthering the CWC’s overarching goals and purposes determined by the Board by performing administrative functions designated by Ralph and otherwise keeping the CWC’s office operating smoothly on a day-to-day basis, including handling a myriad of critical administrative matters (often of first impression for the CWC), overseeing many of the arrangements for Board retreats and meetings and meetings of the CWC’s Stakeholders Council, interacting with and giving input and direction to the CWC’s professional advisors, and a host of other matters that were critical to the success and efficacy of the CWC’s day-to-day administration and functions; and

WHEREAS, during her entire time with the Commission, Kaye diligently worked long hours (being on call essentially 24/7/365), while exhibiting quick intelligence, wisdom, innovation, unending patience and unflagging good humor in the face of a slate of duties and daunting tasks that would have overwhelmed many lesser mortals; and

WHEREAS, ultimately, Kaye has given generously of her time, energy, and talents--to an extent that far exceeded the CWC’s expectations or her pay—to further the purposes of the CWC, and in so doing richly benefitted the CWC, its members and the present and future inhabitants of Utah’s “Wasatch Front” and “Wasatch Back;” and

WHEREAS, Kaye soon will be voluntarily departing her position with the CWC to enjoy a well-deserved retirement after many years in the private and public sectors, much to the dismay of the CWC’s Board, staff, professional advisors and supportive public, all of whom desire to give Kaye a heartfelt “Thank you” for her critically important, admirably-accomplished work on behalf of the CWC and its constituent public; and

WHEREAS, on 6 June 2022, the Board met in regular session to consider, among other things, expressing appreciation to Kaye Mickelson for her work and service to the CWC; and

WHEREAS, after careful consideration, the Board finds that it is in the best interests of the CWC, its members and its constituents to so act;

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED by the Board of Commissioners of the Central Wasatch Commission that the CWC expresses its deep gratitude and appreciation to Kaye Mickelson for her diligent efforts on behalf of the CWC since September 2019, and wishes Kaye well in her retirement.

This Resolution, assigned no. 2022-36, shall take immediate effect as soon as it shall be published or posted as required by law and deposited and recorded in the office of the Commission's secretary, or such later date as may be required by Utah statute.
