VII. Policy

The Utah Inland Port Authority (UIPA) board follows the Utah Open Public Meetings Act (see BP-01). A meeting schedule will be established by the board chair on an annual basis and posted to the UIPA website. Additional meetings may be called by the board as needed. A minimum of 24-hour notice will be provided except in extreme and emergency situations as provided in Utah Code Chapter 52, Title 4, 202 (“Emergency Meeting”).

Agenda:

1. Any member of the board may request agenda items (i.e.: discussion topics, presentations, motions, etc.);
2. Agenda will be drafted by staff, approved by Chair/Vice Chair;
3. Agenda will be posted to the public notice website and the UIPA website no later than 24 hours prior to the start of the proposed board meeting;
4. All meeting materials will be posted to the UIPA website prior to the start of the proposed board meeting;
5. All materials will be provided to the board within 48 hours of the board meeting, unless the board

- meeting is an Emergency Meeting; and,
6. Only items on the agenda may be discussed and/or action taken.

A UIPA meeting is a place for all to be heard and respected. To facilitate a respectful and safe environment, and to allow an orderly, efficient, and effective process, the board has implemented the following procedures during the public comment period:

In-Person:

- ï Each member of the public wishing to participate in the public comment period will complete a comment card;
- ï Cards will be numbered as they are turned into staff;
- ï Comments are limited to 2 minutes per person;
- ï Comments shall be directed to the Chair;
- ï Individuals may only speak once during public comment period; and,
- ï Public comment period is limited to the time remaining in the board meeting.

Online/virtual:

- ï Use the “raise your hand” option when directed by the Chair;
- ï No additional members of the public will be added to the queue once the public comment period begins;
- ï Comments are limited to 2 minutes per person;
- ï Comments shall be directed to the Chair;
- ï Individuals may only speak once during public comment period; and,
- ï Public comment period is limited to the time remaining in the board meeting.

If the meeting is being held as a hybrid option (in-person and virtual) the public comment period will alternate between the two options.

We may not get to all members of the public who wish to participate. Questions/comments are always welcome on the UIPA website (inlandportauthority.utah.gov)

Public Hearing:

The purpose of a public hearing is to provide the public with specific information on the budget and to allow public comment.

1. The public hearing notice must be posted in a newspaper of general circulation a minimum of seven (7) days prior to the proposed public hearing;
2. The budget must be posted on the public notice website a minimum of three (3) days prior to the proposed public hearing;
3. The budget must contain revenues and expenditures including:
 - ï Legal fees, rent, office supplies, other materials, and personnel;
4. The budget will be presented by staff;
5. Members of the public may comment on the budget
 - ï Comments are limited to the topic of the budget only during a public hearing;
 - ï Comments are limited to 2 minutes per person;
 - ï Individuals may only speak once during public comment period; and,
 - ï Public comment period is limited to 15 minutes

In order to support a respectful meeting, items that disrupt the meeting, intimidate other participants or cause safety concerns are not allowed.

BP-05 Meeting Transparency Policy

- ï Jeering, cheering, clapping and waving signs;
- ï Generally, props and equipment are not allowed, if you have a prop or piece of equipment integral to a presentation, you are required to clear it with a staff member before entering the room;
- ï If you have questions about proper placement of recording equipment or recording in general, coordinate with staff prior to the meeting to ensure it does not disrupt the meeting or make others uncomfortable;
- ï Staff may request changes or placement of any equipment to facilitate the meeting;
- ï If you have written remarks, documents, or other items you may want the board to review, do not approach the dais. Staff will take any information you have and distribute; and,
- ï Failure to follow rules of decorum may result in removal from the meeting.
