Re: Prosecution for Huntington City ordinance violations

Dear Robert,

Pursuant to our conversation regarding prosecution of Huntington City ordinance violations, I present the following proposal:

1. I would be willing to prosecute cases under the Huntington City ordinances at a level of Class B misdemeanors and below. I understand that most violations would be under the animal code of the zoning ordinances.
2. I would be willing to handle those cases for a flat fee of $100.00 per case unless a trial is demanded or the case involves an unusual amount of time to prepare, in which case I would charge a rate of $150.00 per hour. The City must approve in advance any such cases. If a case is appealed, that would constitute a separate case under the terms of this agreement.

Please advise if this is reasonable. If so, and upon approval by the City Council, I can begin immediately.

Regards,

/s/ Aaron D. Lancaster
