6:11:48 PM Welcome and Opening Remarks Clint Smith
Mayor

Mayor, Clint Smith expresses his thanks and appreciation for this opportunity to serve as Mayor. He explains that what makes this city special is that we are a community. He believes that we will have great leadership from our council and our mayor to keep moving forward. He is excited for the next chapter of Herriman's history with Mayor Freeman and those moving forward. Shares a quote from Abraham Lincoln which describes what democracy is all about and the ability to have a voice. "The ballot is stronger than the bullet" how true that is, to be able to cast our vote for what we believe in.

Turns the time over to Cindy Quick, Deputy Recorder to proceed with the Oath of Office beginning with Coralee Wessman-Moser, Craig B. Tischner and Mayor Carmen Freeman.

6:18:32 PM Remarks by Newly Elected Officials

Council Woman, Coralee Wessman-Moser expresses her overwhelming gratitude for this opportunity to serve the city and the residents. Gratitude for the staff and her family. Offers her excitement for the next four years.

Council Man, Craig B. Tischner reads a prepared statement and expresses his feelings of encouragement to keep your head up if you ever feel discouraged and alone. He had an experience that made him realize it's not all about him, it's about Herriman and the residents of Herriman. Welcomes Mayor Freeman. He expresses how he looks forward to serving another four years with the other council members with unity. Thanks those who stood beside him especially his wife and his three boys. He is thankful for the opportunity to serve.

6:22:46 PM Closing Remarks

Carmen Freeman
Mayor

Mayor Carmen Freeman, expresses appreciation for Mayor Clint Smith and the tone he has set. Thanks those who are here and those who supported him. Thanks his wife for her support and her companionship in this endeavour. He is excited about his retirement and moving forward. He wants to function with sensitivity, loyalty, compassion and, perhaps most importantly, with integrity. He pledges to serve in a way that would never bring shame to Herriman City or the public circle. He is going to hang the picture of the "Prayer at Valley Forge" in his office to remind him that he needs divine intervention to sustain him. He is grateful for the privilege to live here in Herriman. I pledge my heartfelt effort, my utmost loyalty to the city and my sincere integrity, as we administer and build Herriman to a brighter future with a place that we've all come to know as home. Thank you so much and may God Bless You!
