Tony Cowley- Brings up the date notice of the agenda was incorrect. Mayor Gary thanks him, and notes it was corrected.

Mayor asked Clerk Madison when the paper copy was posted. It was not posted at the post office, only on the State website and on the Town Facebook page. It was noted by several agitated people in attendance that the agenda post needs to be posted in the physical locations where it normally is. This is the post office. Traditionally the agenda is also posted at the Meadow Conoco as well.

Madison Turner- Admits the posting's misunderstanding was a fault of her own. She apologizes to the council/town and takes responsibility. (There is a muffled commentary undistinguished from the crowd).

Mayor Gary-Asks for respect from shoutouts of the townspeople. Mayor addresses the town council, and says there needs to be a decision made, either proceed or scrap the meeting for a later date.

Channing- Asks how many posted places it needs to be, as he also understood it was two.

Mayor Gary- Says the council needs to make a decision. "I can tell you based on my experience that I think we are operating in a hostile climate...It may not hurt to shut it down and reschedule. We had things on the agenda to cover, but we gotta do what we got to do."

CJ- Asks if we need to be posting in three different places.

The council is unanimous to not proceed.

Mayor Gary- Decides to shut it down. He also says the corrum will be coordinating their schedules together to revisit the meeting purposes.

Ray Stewart- Asks if there is a reason why council still can't have the meeting tonight and if we can't just move forward with it.

Zane Murman- Says, that yes there is a reason, it is the law, (in reference to improper posting by physical location of agenda).

Channing- He reminds Zane he actually is not a Meadow Town resident.

Mayor Gary- Says that he appreciates everyone for their attendance and the council will work on the scheduling. Mayor Gary thanks everyone for coming.
