Destruction and Vandalism in Mantua!

Mantua needs to be vigilant. From the shooting of the $9000, bull behind the reservoir on Aug. 19th to the depositing of broken cement and rocks on the old trailhead on Willard Peak Road, there have been unfortunate incidents in Mantua. A town employee when he saw the old Trailhead said, "This is unacceptable, disrespectful and a slap in the face to the law-abiding citizens in the community. We need to have pride in our town. We need to be vigilant and report this kind of activity." There is a $21,000 reward for anyone giving information leading to the arrest and conviction of the person that shot the bull. ($20,000 from the UDAF, Utah Division of Agriculture and Food and $1,000 from an anonymous donor). You may have helpful footage on your door cameras. Call Non-Emergency Dispatch at 435-723-5227 with any info about these incidents and ones like them.
