DETAILED REASON AND EXPLANATION FOR REQUEST:

Payson City staff is requesting approval to modify the Annexation Policy Plan adopted by the Payson City Council on November 7, 2018. The proposal includes a request for the following:

1. Rewrite of the annexation policy plan to be consistent with Utah Code
2. Ensure consistency with agreements with adjacent cities
3. Add and remove properties from the Expansion Area Map

The request will be processed in accordance with Section 10-2-401.5 et al of Utah Code. The process will proceed as follows:

- Public meeting with the planning commission and comment period to allow affected entities to examine the proposed plan and provide input; (October 26, 2022)
- Public hearing and recommendation by the planning commission; and
- Public hearing and decision by the city council.

Utah Code requires notice be given to affected entities and given an opportunity to comments on the request. The notice for the public meeting was provided in accordance with State law and participation in the process may occur in person at the public meeting or by written comment submitted to staff by Monday November 7, 2022. The initial step in the process is to discuss the proposed amendments with the affected entities and gather feedback for consideration during the amendment process.
