 - Craig: ask Brad about the possibility for a separate website for EMC sports and recreation.
 - Brad: EMC includes non-profit signup information on EMC website where other Cities do not share that same information.
 - Adam: shared experience consolidating all Sports and Rec information into a single marketing effort. How to get info out to citizens that is efficient and cost effective.
 - Craig’s report: good/bad experiences based separate individuals; bball facilities huge issue for any users especially non-Jr Jazz or school; flag football 3rd party issues with coaching football (competitive vs fun); coaches training for adults (non-profit vs city run sports); shared example of unique facility other than a “traditional” recreation center (public/private partnership).
 - Adam’s report: citizens are not finding information; improve communication; lot of $ for short season; poorly run program; kids wanting to do competitive need to go elsewhere;
 - Rod’s report: evaluate how information is being shared to citizens; consider increase city budget/staffing; consider city-owned facilities;
