Dear Mayor Mendenhall,

Please accept this letter as formal notification that I am resigning from my position as City Councilman for Spanish Fork City. My Last meeting will be December 13th 2022. Thank you so much for the support from the other elected officials and staff, as I take on the new role as Utah County Commissioner. I've kept it no secret that some of my favorite responsibilities have been involved with the garbage district. I think this is because we are regionally joined with our neighboring cities. As our city borders fall down in this effort, we help each other to take care of an important utility in south Utah county. My love for what public safety does to keep us safe and show up on our worst days has also been one of my interests. I will take what I have learned as a city councilman throughout my personal work career and as a County Commissioner where the experiences will no doubt make me better prepared for what's to come.

During my last month, I'll do everything possible to wrap up my duties as councilman and train any others on the boards I have served on or my current responsibilities. It is so important to me to see the progress of this great city continue. I have ever bit of confidence in staff, the existing council and of course you as Mayor, that you will continue guiding the ship, making Spanish Fork the greatest city in the world.

Thank you for the experiences, the laughs and most importantly the friendships. I'll sign off here like signing Spanish Fork yearbooks in the 80's. Stay cool, see you at the ball bark this summer & remember the more you weigh, the harder you are to kidnap. Stay safe-eat cake.
