Members Present: Laura Gailard, Janis McClellan, Kelly Holtman, Aldo Del Bosque, Jason McGuire, Janell Payne, Tiffany Parker

Members Absent: NA

A. Welcome, Roll Call, and Introduction: Aldo Del Bosque

B. Minute Approval

B.1. October Minutes: Janis McClellan motioned to approve and Kelly Holtman seconded.

C. New Business:

C.1. Arts Council Chair and Co-Chair Position Terms

By discussion and unanimous vote, Laura Gailard will be the Arts Council Chair and Aldo Del Bosque will be the Arts Council Co-Chair.

C.2. Light the Night Installation

We have two ice sculptures ordered for Light the Night. We will add a sign near both that indicate they are sponsored by the Arts Council.

C.3. Gingerbread House Contest

The Gingerbread Houses will be due to City Hall on Tuesday November 29, and the Judging will take place on Wednesday November 30. City Council and Arts Council members will be invited to judge the Gingerbread Contest. Winners will be announced at Light the Night on December 2.

C.4. Program Proposals for Budgeting

Arts Council discussed a large variety of Art proposal ideas for the next budget.

C.4.1 Workshops, programing and education ideas: Adult and Youth Art classes such as gingerbread classes, painting, phone photography and digital editing.

C.4.2 Public Art insulation ideas: Mural geocaching, tile art, rotating art sculptures, kids rock painting for Jordan River Trail.

C.4.3 Performing Art ideas: A dueling piano night, contracting out through RFP a company to run the play, possibly holding 2 plays during the year; a musical and a straight play. Consideration for Arts Council to sponsor the stage or a band for SoJo Summerfest.

C.4.4 Visual Art: Plein air painting, adding an art loan display from Salt Lake County, add and repair utility boxes, bring back the quilt show and add to Art on the Towne.

D. Unfinished Business:

D.1. City Artwork Inventory

Tiffany has been working on a list of addresses of all installed art work and utility boxes and in January will check on the condition and status of each instillation.

Meeting Adjourned: Janis McClellan motioned adjourn and Jason McGuire, seconded.
