CONCERNS RAISED BY PUBLIC

Any comments received prior to completion of the Staff Report are addressed in the Staff Report to the Planning Commission. Key issues raised in written comments received subsequent to the Staff Report or public comment during the public hearing included the following: None.

APPLICANT RESPONSE

Key points addressed in the applicant's presentation to the Planning Commission included the following:

- Jason White gave an overview of the vision for the project area and noted that the phases will be several years apart.
- Jamie Chapman shared multiple renderings for the project and detailed the architecture for the proposal.

PLANNING COMMISSION DISCUSSION

Key points discussed by the Planning Commission included the following:

- Daniel Gonzales inquired of staff how the adjacent building heights of existing structures compared with the proposal.
- Robert Knudsen confirmed with staff that the residential home to the south of the proposal was staying and would still have access to 5600 North and 5200 North.
- The Commission commented on the history and context of the proposals and that there were not any concerns with these latest submissions.
- The Commission discussed the height of the buildings, relating that the location is a good fit without a lot of residential nearby to affected and that the landscaping against University Avenue will help to buffer the buildings. They also complimented the architecture as interesting and a good variety, stating that the plans offer quality offices that may keep new businesses in Provo.
- Andrew South confirmed with staff that no precedent is being established in the area, as adjacent sites are in different zones and have different rules for height.
