

CITY COUNCIL MEETING AGENDA EXECUTIVE SUMMARY

March 7, 2023

This Executive Summary includes only certain issues on the City Council Meeting Agenda which require a vote, and for which the City Council is not familiar. The City Council Meeting Agenda includes all issues to be addressed by the City Council.

Agenda Items:

G.1. Resolution R2023-12, authorizing the Mayor to enter into an Interlocal Cooperation Agreement with Salt Lake County to receive services of the Salt Lake County Election Division during the 2023 Primary and General Municipal Elections as an entirely absentee (vote by mail) ballot election. (Anna Crookston, City Recorder, pg. 15).

The City's 2023 Primary and General Municipal Elections will occur this Fall (2023). The City and the County desire to cooperate in providing election services for their respective residents. The County desires to provide the services of its Clerk's Office, Election Division, to the City for the purpose of assisting the City in conducting the 2023 municipal elections as an entirely absentee (vote by mail) ballot election.

Recommendation: Approve Resolution R2023-12, authorizing the Mayor to enter into an Interlocal Cooperation Agreement with Salt Lake County to receive services of the Salt Lake County Election Division during the 2023 Primary and General Municipal Elections as an entirely absentee (vote by mail) ballot election.

I.1. Ordinance 2023-01, vacating a portion of Right-of-Way along the south side of Lake Avenue between Vadania Drive and Lake Run Road and a portion of Right-of-Way along the west side of Grandville Avenue between South Jordan Parkway and Lake Avenue. Applicant Larry H. Miller Real Estate. (Steven Schaefermeyer, Director of Planning, pg. 30).

Applicant petitioned the City to vacate the subject right-of-way (ROW). The portions of the ROW proposed to be vacated are not part of the roadway, but are the area adjacent to the curb (sidewalk/planter area). If approved, both a public utility easement (PUE) and public sidewalk access easement will be recorded within the vacated area, and the property will be deeded to the Applicant, who is the adjacent property owner.

When the original ROW for Grandville Avenue and Lake Avenue were platted, the street sections and streetscape for this area had not been designed. As the Applicant refines the urban design of the area, the layout of sidewalk and planter area proposed moves homes closer to the street as is already in place in the Town Center area of Daybreak.

Recommendation: Approve Ordinance 2023-01, vacating a portion of Right-of-Way along the south side of Lake Avenue between Vadiana Drive and Lake Run Road and a portion of Right-of-Way along the west side of Grandville Avenue between South Jordan Parkway and Lake Avenue.

I.2. Ordinance 2023-04, re-adopting the City's Construction Standards and Specifications.
(Brad Klavano, Director of Engineering/City Engineer, pg. 52).

Utah's HB 232, passed in 2017, requires that the City's Construction Standards and Specifications become part of the Land Use Regulations and be adopted by the City Council by ordinance. Once a year, the City reviews these construction standards and specifications and if there are any changes made, the City Council re-adopts them by ordinance. There are several changes this year.

Recommendation: Approve Ordinance 2023-04, re-adopting the City's Construction Standards and Specifications.
