C. New Business:

C.1. City Photo Contest Updates

Arts council overall thought that this project from communications was a great idea. The thoughts that came up for improvement to communications on future photo contests are to narrow down what Arts Council needs to judge, consider photo quality and also put the photos in order to make the judging easier, and less confusing.

C.2 Artist on Display 2023

Artist on display for 2023 is full for the year. We have reserved one spot for Dustin Lewis for June at City Hall and July at the Gale Center for a City project he would like to do.

C.3 Spring Art Show 2023

Artist will drop off their art on Monday March 13. Art will be organized and put up for display from March 14-16; Arts Council will need to judge the Art Show Friday March 17 or on Monday March 10 before 3pm., Tiffany will give out information on times to come in and judge. The Artist reception will be Monday March 21 from 7-9pm. Arts Council and City Council will be invited to this.

C.4. Arts Master Plan Updates

Janell gave the update; we have been caring over money in the budget for the Arts Master Plan the last couple of years due to the high proposals from the original RFPs. We were able to get matching grant funds for this as well. The Arts Master Plan request for proposals were reviewed by the RFP committee and a company has been selected. We will moving forward and starting the contract process for this. Part of their proposal is to gather a committee of members including Arts Council members to help with the City's future in the Arts programing and planning process.

C.5. Sock Puppets

The Sock Puppets are planning to start back up. They will be starting their shows in February. They plan to have a show the First Friday of every month at 9pm at the Gale Center.

D. Unfinished Business

D.1. Program Budgeting and follow up

We went through all of the programing ideas from the past two meetings. Arts Council has decided that they would like to keep the following; Artist on Display, Spring Art Show and reception, pumpkin carver at Pumpkin Promenade, gingerbread contest, rotating art on the Jordan River Trail, Vintage Dance, ice carving at Night of Lights, Dueling Pianos, utility box covers, mural geocaching, kids rock painting at Farmers Market, The Quilt Show, ornaments for community Tree, The Sock Puppets, and sponsor the art work for a SoJo Summerfest collectible poster. Arts Council agreed that we should submit an RFP for the Theater production, if it is possible to hold a straight paly as well as a musical in the same budget year with the current theater budget that would be preferred. The City Art programing budget will keep; The Chalk Art contest, Art on the Towne, Candy Windows, Plein Art Contest, Gingerbread classes, adult art workshops and children's art classes.
