A. LBA OPENING CEREMONY:

1. Board/Council Member Dan Dugan will conduct the formal meeting.

Minutes:

Council Member Dugan welcomed all in attendance, reviewed the rules of decorum and the role of City Council Members as members of the Local Building Authority and the Redevelopment Agency.

2. Pledge of Allegiance.

Minutes:

The Pledge of Allegiance was recited.

B. LBA UNFINISHED BUSINESS:

1. Resolution: Tentative Budget for the Capital Projects Fund of the Local Building Authority for Fiscal Year 2022-23

The Board will consider approving a resolution adopting the tentative budget for the Capital Projects Fund of the Local Building Authority of Salt Lake City, Utah for Fiscal Year 2022-23.

The LBA's Capital Projects Fund for Fiscal Year 2022-23 only includes the bond debt services for the Glendale and Marmalade Libraries. (Other Capital projects throughout the City are included in the Mayor's Recommended Budget.) The LBA is a financing tool for cities and government entities, like libraries, to bond for capital projects at better interest rates. Capital projects are big projects like parks, public buildings, and street projects.

I. COMMENTS:

1. Comments to the City Council. (Comments are taken on any item not scheduled for a public hearing, as well as on any other City business. Comments are limited to two minutes.)

Minutes:

Council Member Dugan reviewed the rules of decorum and the process for general comments.

Keiko Jones, Fairpark Community Council member, spoke to the redistricting maps, the number of districts the Fairpark Community was included in and why having the multiple districts helped the community and surrounding neighborhoods, urged the Council to vote for the minimal changes map as presented.

Lindsey Bateman spoke to the survey conducted regarding financial security she conducted for a class at the University of Utah, requested more information regarding financial stability be offered to the public.

Kathrine Stewart spoke to providing more outdoor activities for the youth of Salt Lake City, asked for the former Raging Waters site to remain a water park and importance of keeping it an area for outdoor activities to provide options for youth to exercise.

Josh Stewart spoke to the need to keep the water park available for the youth, spoke to the nature of the proposal for the site given during the Councils' work session, the need to get kids off their screens and outside to exercise, give the kids a place to go that was exciting and adventurous.

George Chapman stated the Westside should have an outdoor swimming pool, City surveys had limited responses and the City needed to allow for more housing development on the Westside.

Christopher Butler spoke against the proposed police budget, suggested the money be used for homelessness and helping those with mental illness.

Written Comment submitted during the meeting via comment card:

Robert Goodman: For the 22/23 budget, I support public health funds to be used to improve the safety of roadways, as the number of pedestrians deaths climb, and in my neighborhood which is considered to be very walkable.
