Visitors: Ross McClintock, reported on a recent economic seminar he attended where the Chief Economist of Zion's Bank, who was the keynote speaker, stated Rural Utah has several emerging markets, with Salina City being #1. "The Chief Economist said Salina's emerging market is top in the rural communities of the state. McClintock invited the Mayor and Council members to attend a meeting with the EDCU (Economic Development Corporation of Utah) delegation who will visit Salina on July 12, 2023. McClintock said none of them have visited this area, so working with the local Chamber of Commerce, a luncheon site visit has been arranged. The EDCU is an appendage of the Governor's Office, and when an out of state company is looking around for a site to relocate or expand they contact the EDCU and request information. McClintock stated in the past year and half over twenty businesses have requested information on the Salina industrial Park, and of those, two are still interested in touring the site. In addition, McClintock announced the Lieutenant Governor has responded positively to the City's request to attend the Women's national Finals Event at the Blackhawk Arena on October 20, 2023 and she will serve as the Master of Ceremonies.
