FEBRUARY 28, 2023 AT 5:45 P.M. AT SPRINGVILLE CIVIC CENTER, MULTI-PURPOSE ROOM, 110 SOUTH MAIN, SPRINGVILLE, UTAH.

Board Members in attendance: Jeremy Barker, Kate Henderson, Kimberly Stinson, Patrice Bolen, Polly Dunn, Adam Provance, Dean Duncan, Jim Brooks, Kurtt Boucher, Logan Millsap, Trevor Weight, and Ximena Bishop

City Staff in attendance: Stacey Child, David Ashton, Michael Snelson, Josh Yost, Emily Larsen, Hannah Silvey, Jack Urquhart, Randilyn Sperry

Members excused: Cindy Sweat, Lee Taylor, Shane Lamb, Sydney Condie.

WELCOME: Patrice Bolen

APPROVAL OF MINUTES: January 24, 2023 minutes - Motion by Trevor Weight to approve the minutes, second by Kurt Boucher. Vote was unanimous for approval.

PUBLIC COMMENT: We had not found the form from last year so, Stacey and Patrice Bolen answered Doris Weight's questions about what is being done with Spring Acres Park with the new high school. Stacey explained there will be a new park. Doris is wondering if the new trails will be available while its being redone. Stacey pulled up an updated map of what it will be like in 2026. Ximena wanted to know if some trees can be moved to dry creek, but there is not proper irrigation.

PARK PROJECTS UPDATE: Patrice asked Michael if the city council approved projects; which they were all approved.

Cherry Ridge Bike Park- Final plans were presented. Kimberly asked where the plans can be found. Dave & City will make a presentation.

- Bike Playground

Restrooms

River Walk-New pathway. Lots of restriction.

Memorial tennis Courts-Beginning of May construction starts with hopes off finishing by Sept.

- 4 tennis courts
- 2 Pickle ball Stripes on 2 of the tennis courts
- Shade structure
- New fencing
- Sidewalk
- LED lighting

Hammock garden- Exact location is unsure, southeast corner. An artist, Jim Valentine, is coming in to carve art pieces on the hammock poles.

Dry Creek Trail-Applying for grant and hoping to get started phasing this in. Developer went bankrupt, this piece of land landed in the cities with no resources. Bradley Neel & Mike Snelson started looking into this. Josh is remembering it was an HOA property, but that failed.

- Irrigation/turf
- Pavilion
- Swings
- Biking Features

Mike Snelson let the board how much of a difference the PAR board has made. The city council was impressed with the board and trusted they had vetted everything. He also assured the board they all have specialties, and don't be afraid to add things to the agenda when Teresa sends the email.

Kimberly asked about the Rec theater program. Hannah explained they started at first with two classes, and ended up opening a 3rd class with 5 kids on the waiting list.

Art classes start next week. Two classes were open; the younger class is full with a waitlist. The older class is currently half full.

ADJOURNMENT: Polly Dunn made motion to adjourn, Kimberly Stinson second it.

Meeting adjourned at 6:40 p.m.
